

James F. Borden

James F. Borden, 79, of Bryant Street, Berkley, died Wednesday at the Veterans Administration Medical Center in Boston. He was the husband of Elizabeth (Askew) Borden.

Born in Fall River, he was a son of the late Herbert A. and Clara (Booth) Borden.

Mr. Borden

He graduated from B.M.C. Durfee High School in 1944; Corburn Institute of Maine in 1947; Thibodeau's Business School in 1949; and the Savings Bank Association Graduate School of Banking at Brown University in 1969.

Mr. Borden was a Navy veteran of World War II in the Pacific Theater.

He worked at the Citizens-Union Savings Bank of Fall River from 1950 to 1986 as assistant treasurer, treasurer, trustee and executive vice president.

He was a United Way volunteer and a member of the Fall River Chamber of Commerce, American Legion Post 303 of Swansea and Post No. 21 of Berkley, Touisset Country of Swansea and Fall River Country Club.

He is survived by two sons, Stephen Borden of Seekonk and Peter J. Borden of Somerset; two daughters, Carol E. Chace of Westport and Patricia Silvia of Berkley; 10 grandchildren; a great-granddaughter; and several nieces and nephews.

Arrangements are by the Hathaway Community Home for Funerals, 900 Buffinton St., Somerset.